

STATE CONTESTANT CONTRACT RUNDOWN

Section 1 Introduction:

- Who is MVA? State Pageants and what they've invested and will continue to invest in the MVA program to make it continue to meet the mission/objectives of the organization
- State will hold state competition and may hold locals
- State titleholder expectations: conduct, etiquette and performance during tenure as a titleholder
- State contestant expectations: someone becomes a contestant once they enter/sign the contract and it is accepted by state
- State titleholder requirements for contestants competing in state or national competition:
 - Must comply with rules
 - Understand that compliance with all set forth in contract can be reviewed by state/local at any time to ensure contestant remains compliant
 - Understands by signing the document that all information submitted is true and accurate

Section 2: Eligibility

What makes you eligible to be a contestant:

- Comply with rules of eligibility
- If make false statements, circumstances change that make statements no longer accurate or if don't adhere to the code of conduct, could forfeit prizes and scholarship

Section 3: Participation in State Pageants

- Agree to participate in all activities related to the local or state pageant including those leading up to it and the competition itself
- Follow all rules set by state
- Expect that state will conduct pageant in accordance with MVA rules for pageants (i.e. proper judges, no conflicts, etc.)
- Pageant may or may not be televised, live streamed, etc.
- If selected as a runner up, will assume title if circumstances require such

Section 4: Commitments for Service as State Titleholder

- Serve during tenure and follow obligations of titleholder

